S. Hamilton has lived in this town some years, but we understand that the woman lives with, has a living husband that she has never been divorced from; therefore the woman and her children cannot have a claim on this town;
In a case we had with Bucksport, we proved her lawful marriage with Miller (now living) and Bucksport maintains her child; she pretends to own a little real estate in this town which you may secure if you wish.
You are satisfied that Hamilton can take care of himself when not
